

TriboIron Replacement Set Reagent to determine the iron content

- Non-hazardous for transport and storage
- Available in 2 sizes - 60 or 120 tests

The all new TriboIron is a measuring tool to detect the iron content in the scrape down oil. There are two different types existing – corrosive and abrasive. The TriboIron Test enables both types of iron to be identified.

Order No.: 1518 (60 tests)

Order No.: 1519 (120 tests)